Introducing you to SaBRE

We have recently received a questionnaire from you in regards to reservists working for your organisation and would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support and to offer our help should you need it.

We feel it is important to recognise your support so as a thank you for confirming your status as a supportive employer we would like you to have the enclosed certificate, which is signed by the Secretary of State Defence and the Chief of the Defence Staff.

We're here to help

SaBRE exists to support you and your reservists. If you ever need advice or information on any aspect of employing members of the Volunteer Reserve Forces, or if you simply want to have your opinions and ideas heard, please make use of us. Our details are below; please don't hesitate to contact SaBRE should you wish to.

Yours sincerely

Mr Richard Lenton
Regional SaBRE Campaign Director
for Yorkshire and the Humber
